

Homework #1

Part One: What's hot, what's cool, what's real

You are to find three examples of the use of text you find interesting. Your examples could be from a magazine, from a box of cereal to candy bar wrapper.

Example One

1. Where is the example from?
2. What attracted you to the use of the text?
3. What is your favorite letter in the text & why?

Example Two

1. Where is the example from?
2. What attracted you to the use of the text?
3. What colors are used in the text?
4. What is your favorite letter in the text & why?

Example Three

1. Where is the example from?
2. What attracted you to the use of the text?
3. What is your favorite letter in the text & why?

Part Two: What letter is in that window

You are to draw two of the letters you found interesting from Part One: What's hot...

- Each drawing needs to take up a whole sheet of 8.5 x 11 in graph paper.
- Each drawing needs to be in pencil.
- Each drawing should accurately reflect the letter example.
- You need to turn in both your drawings and examples in together.
